Fauquier County presents

BIVOUACS & BATTLEFIELDS

The Civil War Landscape of Fauquier County

ALDIE, AUBURN, BRANDY STATION, BUCKLAND MILLS, KELLY'S FORD, MANASSAS GAP, MIDDLEBURG, RAPPAHANNOCK STATION, THOROUGHFARE GAP, AND UPPERVILLE

FREE ONE-DAY SYMPOSIUM

SATURDAY, MARCH 28, 2009

8 AM—5:30 PM

FAUQUIER HS AUDITORIUM

WARRENTON, VIRGINIA

Top: Warrenton Courthouse, 1862; Middle: CSA Gen. J.E.B. Stuart, 1862; Bottom: USA Gen. J. Kilpatrick, 1863.

Keynote:
Robert K. Krick

3-D Presentation
by Bob Zeller

with
Garry Adelman
Childs Burden
Bud Hall

Fauquier County will host a FREE one-day lecture series bringing to life the historical significance of the countryside we live in and travel through, thanks to grant funding from the National Park Service and the support of local historical groups and volunteers.
For more information, contact Kimberly Abe at 540-347-8660 or eugenehankinson@aol.com.
With the co-operation of Citizens for Fauquier County, tax deductible contributions may be made toward the cost of this event and additional civil war research. Write check to "CFFC," specifying "Battlefield Symposium" in the memo area, and mail it to PO Box 3486 Warrenton, VA, 20188.