Emergency Communications Center Training Coordinator Receives National Certification

Training Coordinator Allison Marshall just completed the NENA (National Emergency Number Association) Center Manager Certification Program. The course prepares communications specialists for a role as a Public Safety Answering Point manager and leader. The 40 hour course provides training in business writing, financial management, human resources, legal issues and communications skills through hands-on training.

Please join Sheriff Mosier and the men and woman of the Sheriff's Office in congratulating Allison on this achievement.
