

Built Before the War: the Hidden Legacy of Fauquier County's Enslaved & Free Black Tradesmen

May 18, 2019 11:00 a.m.

Afro American Historical Association

4243 Loudoun Avenue, The Plains, VA

Carpenters, stone & brick masons, blacksmiths, house joiners, stone fencers—all of these building trade occupations were held by enslaved and free black men during the early years of Fauquier County. Join us on May 18 as we learn more about these craftsmen and honor their contributions to the county's built environment.

Event free and open to the public.

Sponsored by the Fauquier County Community Development Department, the Afro-American Historical Association of Fauquier County, and the Fauquier County Architectural Review Board
