BEWARE OF PORCH PIRATES BEALETON MAN ARRESTED AFTER TAKING PACKAGE FROM PORCH

BEALETON – Deputies responded to Blake Lane in Bealeton Wednesday evening after a caller reported observing a male suspect take a package from a residential porch. The caller further described the male suspect as driving a white Volvo and following a UPS delivery truck through the neighborhood, prior to taking the package. The caller was able to provide a Virginia tag number.

The Volvo and driver was located by Corporal Irby near the Food Lion on Village Center Drive. The driver was identified as Cedric Milton, 43, of Bealeton. Milton was positively identified by a witness and subsequently placed under arrest.

Milton was taken before a magistrate and charged with petit larceny-third offense. He was held without bond at the Fauquier County Adult Detention Center.

Deputies canvassed the neighborhood around Blake Lane for additional larceny victims. If you live in the area and believe you are missing a delivered package please contact the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office at 540-347-3300. BEWARE OF PORCH PIRATES!
