Upon clicking “Submit”, you will be taken to the confirmation page, which provides an opportunity to setup your computer for the WebEx Event in advance.

If you click the “please click here” link, the WebEx program will either pop-up an installer OR give you an opportunity for other types of installation. This is a personal choice item, ultimately any of the options will work for connecting to the WebEx Meeting application. There is an alternative to installing software by waiting for the confirmation email.

You will receive the confirmation email when the Meeting Moderator approves your registration. When clicking the green “Join event” button, your default browser will open a WebEx Event Information webpage, this page gives you an option to Join by browser and nothing will install to your personal computer.

For additional installation options, such as the Webex Web App, please use the Cisco Webex Help Center.
