Sergeant Jimmy Hartman retires after 31 years of service to Fauquier County

Sergeant James Nelson Hartman III, known by most as Jimmy Hartman, has retired after serving the citizens of Fauquier County in law enforcement for thirty-one years. A passionate and dedicated law enforcement officer, he spent the past 16 years as a member of the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office.

Sergeant Hartman began his career with the Town of Warrenton Police Department as a dispatcher and law enforcement officer. He made a career move in 2004, when he was hired to be a Detective with the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office. Soon after, he became Assistant Divisional Commander of CID and Division Commander of the Records and Training Division.

During Sgt. Hartman's tenure at the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office, he dedicated long hours and developed a vast knowledge of this profession, having served throughout several divisions. Sergeant Hartman devoted himself to his profession and was always willing to gain more knowledge to better assist him with his daily duties.

Sergeant Hartman worked in Patrol, Narcotics and worked as a Major Crimes Detective. He is a graduate of the DEA Drug Unit Commanders Academy and the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia. For the past ten years Sergeant Hartman has served as the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office Public Information Officer and dispersed news of safety concerns to citizens of the county.

Sergeant Hartman has also been an active volunteer throughout the community. He has been the Treasurer of Fauquier Cops for Children and was a member of the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Club of Fauquier County. He was recently elected to the Warrenton Town Council.

Sergeant Hartman is well-liked by his peers and will truly be missed at the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office.

The men and women of the Sheriff's Office join Sheriff Mosier in congratulating Sergeant James Hartman on his successful career and wish him a happy and joyful retirement.
