

December

Congratulations to Drew Fioranelli, GIS Director for being named the Fauquier County Government’s Employee of the Month for December. He is being recognized for his input into creating our first Coffee and Conversations. An event that is designed to facilitate sharing leadership ideas and perspectives through story telling. Drew dropped the seed for this idea and then took the helm to be the first speaker. His courageousness and humility displayed during his talk allowed others to understand the path of leadership has many different routes. His conversation was titled, “Our Scars are Our Stories”.

The county appreciates for his foresight to create of platform for leaders. We are proud to present Drew with the Employee of the Month award for December 2018.
