The graduates have completed months of intensive training designed to prepare them for the challenges of serving the public in emergency situations. With their training now complete, they will begin their careers with the Fauquier County Fire Rescue system.

"We are so proud of this class and the work they have put into completing Recruit School," said Fire Chief Kalvyn Smith. "They have trained tirelessly to prepare for the demands of this profession, and we are confident they will serve our community with skill and dedication."

"Fire Rescue is a vital part of our community, and their decision to serve here reflects their dedication to protecting and supporting our residents. We welcome them into the Fauquier County family and look forward to the impact they will make for years to come." said County Administrator Janelle Downes.

The completion of Recruit School 25-21 marks the start of meaningful careers in public safety and a commitment to protecting the lives and property of Fauquier County residents.

Next recruit school begins December 2025. If you are interested, please visit www.fauquiercounty.gov.
